

AIRWAY MANAGEMENT SIG MEETING

“When time is critical”

Grand Hyatt - Kuala Lumpur | April 27-28, 2019

#AirwaySIG19

On behalf of the Airway Management Special Interest Group, we take great pleasure inviting you to the 2019 Airway Management SIG meeting.

Saturday April 27 - Sunday April 28

The program will cover the following topics in sessions: “Airway Assessment – what’s old and new”, “The Difficult Airway Society (DAS) Session”, “Intubation and the Airway”, “High Flow Nasal Oxygen”, “Airway Incidents”, “CICO” and various miscellaneous topics including what to do in a Coronial inquiry.

The Airway presentations will be followed by a day of workshops.

We are happy to have a number of world-renown keynote speakers including Dr Imran Ahmad, Consultant Anaesthetist Guys Hospital, UK; Dr Andy Higgs from the Difficult Airway Society, UK; Professor Ellen O’Sullivan President of the College of Anaesthetists of Ireland and past president of the Difficult Airway Society, UK: and Dr Vladimir Nekhendry, USA.

In addition, several of our national speakers will present high-calibre, interesting lectures, which will give you more insight in the latest developments regarding difficult airways and help you serve our patients to provide optimal care.

Kuala Lumpur is an interesting city. The traffic congestion is something to be experienced ONCE, so book early to secure accommodation at or near the venue.

We look forward to welcoming you to this exciting meeting.
