

MEDICAL EDUCATION SIG SATELLITE MEETING

"The road to excellence, while avoiding wayside landmines"

Friday September 20, 2019 | International Convention Centre (ICC), Sydney

#EduSIG19

Program

8.30am	Registration
9am	Introduction and housekeeping Professor Jenny Weller, Chair of Medical Education SIG
9.10am	Plenary: Competency-based medical education: Fad or future of lifelong learning Professor Viren Naik
9.40am	Making feedback stick Professor Liz Molloy
10.15am	Morning tea
10.45am	Workshop: Feedback conversations: From hand-grenades to beating about the bush – getting it just right Professor Liz Molloy and faculty
12.15pm	Lunch
1.15pm	Panel discussion: Feedback and assessment in the workplace Moderator: Professor Jenny Weller Dilemmas of feedback in CBME Professor Liz Molloy Going solo – decisions, dilemmas and disaster avoidance Dr Jennifer Woods Learners negotiating the WBA minefield; Who to trust, with what and how much Dr Damian Castanelli Conferring entrustment without assessing everything Dr Robert Anderson Discussion
2.45pm	Afternoon tea
3.15pm	Round table: Slowing the change – A necessary ingredient to implementing CBME Professor Viren Naik, Dr Robert Anderson
4.15pm	Plenary: The global vision of CBME Professor Viren Naik
4.45pm	The last word (learner-generated of course) Professor Liz Molloy
5pm	Close Professor Jenny Weller