

Two questions

If you were so unwell that you could not talk about your treatment with your doctor, is there someone you would want to speak for you?

Have you discussed this with that person?