

Combined Communication, Education, Welfare, Leadership and Management SIG Meeting

“Confident competence: Creating and maintaining our abilities”

Novotel Twin Waters, Sunshine Coast, Queensland

October 27-29, 2017

FRIDAY OCTOBER 27

8.30-10.30am	Workshop 2: Mini CRASH - return to work
9-10.30am	Workshop 1: ANZCA Emergency Response Activity CICO workshop
10.30-11am	Morning tea
11am-1pm	Workshop 2 continued: Mini CRASH - return to work
11.30am-1pm	Workshop 3: ANZCA Emergency Response Activity CICO workshop
1-2pm	Lunch and registration open
2-3.30pm	Opening plenary: The role of happiness in the pursuit of a confident and competent workforce Chair: Dr Marion Andrew Living well, working well: A comprehensive workplace approach to mental health and wellbeing - Jaelea Skehan Happy workers make safe workers - Carolyn Canfield

3.30-4pm

Afternoon tea

4-5.30pm

Leadership and Welfare plenary
 Confident and competent non-technical skills for better patient safety
 Chair: Dr Anna Hallett

College and department perspectives on professionalism - Dr Lindy Roberts

Encouraging vs enforcing non-technical competencies - Dr David Sainsbury

Relationship-based Healthcare for better Safety and Quality - Carolyn Canfield

Sponsored session:
Odyssey Specialist Group
 Financial Mapping in an ever changing world
Mr Tony Rosenberg

5.30-7pm

Welcome reception

Barefoot drinks by the beach - Novotel Twin Waters

SATURDAY OCTOBER 28

8-9am

Annual General Meeting
 Leadership and Management SIG

Annual General Meeting
 Communication in Anaesthesia SIG

9-10.30am

Communication in anaesthesia plenary
 Chair: Dr Marion Andrew

Developing competencies for communication skills in anaesthesia
Professor Kirsty Forrest

Developing competencies for communicating with patients presenting for anaesthesia care
Dr Allan Cyna

Developing competencies for communicating with managers about anaesthesia care
Associate Professor Scott Simmons

10.30-11am

Morning tea

Combined SIG Meeting

"Confident competence: Creating and maintaining our abilities"

Novotel Twin Waters, Sunshine Coast, October 27-29, 2017

SATURDAY OCTOBER 28 continued
11am-12.30pm	Medical education plenary: Competency in medical education Competency, entrustment and assessment - Professor Jennifer Weller A question of trust - Dr Damian Castanelli ANZCA and entrustable professional activities - Dr Jennifer Woods
12.30-1.30pm	Lunch - Welfare advocate lunch
1.30-3pm	Welfare SIG session Suicide in acute care medics, prevention and consequences Chair: Dr Tracey Tay Conversations matter: A workshop on communicating about suicide and supporting those impacted - Jaelea Skehan The black dog runs at night - Dr Andy Tagg Postvention: a guideline for after a sudden death - Dr Cath Purdy	Medical education SIG session Entrusting trainees with patient care: Gut feelings, rating scales or tick boxes Facilitators: Professor Jennifer Weller, Dr Damian Castanelli and Dr Jennifer Woods
3-3.30pm	Afternoon tea
3.30-5pm	Communication SIG session When communication breaks down - a patient's story! Chair: Associate Professor Scott Simmons Panel: Mrs Carolyn Canfield, Dr Suyin Tan, Dr Allan Cyna and friends	Workshop 4: ANZCA Educator program module: Concepts in assessment Dr Tim Hodgson
7-10pm	Conference dinner - Lily's on the lagoon
SUNDAY OCTOBER 29
8-9am	Annual General Meeting Medical Education SIG	Annual General Meeting Welfare of Anaesthetists SIG
9-10.30am	Welfare SIG session "Maintaining our competence in the transition to retirement" Chair: Dr Di Khursandi Competency as we age, what's all the fuss about? Dr Anna Hallett and Dr Di Khursandi Physiological/biochemical changes which underpin the ageing process Dr David Sainsbury Ageing disgracefully Professor Carmelle Peisah	Workshop 5: ANZCA Educator program module: Planning effective teaching and learning - Professor Kirsty Forrest
10.30-11am	Morning tea
11am-12.30pm	Closing plenary: When things go wrong: the impact on those involved Chair: Dr Cath Purdy Harm and Recovery: finding safety in caring Carolyn Canfield The first cut is the deepest The second victim effect after successful CICO - Dr Annick Depuydt Managing the fall out: medico-legal considerations after a significant event - Tracy Picket Panel discussion
12.30pm	Lunch and close of meeting	