

ADVANCING PAIN CARE

Challenges and opportunities

2-3 October 2026
RACV City Club, Melbourne
#PAINSM26

PROGRAM

Friday 2 October

8.30am	Workshop registration
9am–12pm	Supervisors of training (SOT) workshop: Entrustable professional activities	Facilitators: Dr Tipu Aamir, Dr Carl Jones and Ms Janet McConville
9am–12pm	FPM examiner foundations MCQ workshop	Facilitators: Associate Professor Rob Park and Dr Don Johnson
12–1pm	Lunch
12.30–2pm	W01: Advanced cardiovascular life support (ACLS) workshop	Facilitators: Dr Tom Grosser-Kennedy and Dr Harry Sivakumar
12.30–2.30pm	W04: Opioid-induced ventilatory impairment (OIVI) workshop	Facilitators: Dr Bronwen Evans and Dr Noam Winter
2–3pm	Afternoon tea
2.30–4pm	W02: Advanced cardiovascular life support (ACLS) workshop	Facilitators: Dr Tom Grosser-Kennedy and Dr Harry Sivakumar
3–5pm	W03: Opioid-induced ventilatory impairment (OIVI) workshop	Facilitators: Dr Bronwen Evans and Dr Noam Winter
5–7pm	Welcome Reception

Saturday 3 October

8am	Registration
8.30–8.45	Welcome
8.30am	Welcome from the FPM Dean	Professor Michael Veltman
8.35am	Welcome to Country	Colin Hunter Jnr Jnr
8.40am	Convenors' Welcome	Dr Harry Sivakumar
8.45–10.30am	Session 1: Pelvic pain as a model for integrated care	Chair: Dr Megan Eddy
8.45am	From pain mechanisms to management: The pain specialist's role in complex pelvic pain	Dr Karin Jones
9.10am	Restoring function: The role of pelvic physiotherapy in multidisciplinary care	Dr Shan Morrison
9.35am	Nutrition and pelvic pain: Opportunities for better outcomes	Ms Shannon McDonough
10am	Panel discussion: What does good integrated pelvic pain care look like?	All speakers
10.30–11am	Morning tea

11am–12.30pm	Session 2: Bridging specialties in complex pain care	Chair: Dr Harry Sivakumar
11am	Making sense of the rheumatology screen: When to investigate, refer and reassure	Dr Rushab Shah
11.30am	Headache: A neurologist's approach and shared care opportunities	Dr Trudy Cheng
12pm	A psychiatrist's approach to the use of antidepressant medicines in current psychiatric practice	Dr Dan Hubik
12.30–1.30pm	Lunch
12.45–1.15pm	Lunchtime session: ePPOC information session This session will explore the closure of ePPOC and the sector-wide response across Australia and New Zealand, including implications for pain services, benchmarking, and outcomes-based care. We will consider the future of pain registries and practical strategies to mitigate disruption while sustaining meaningful data collection and quality improvement.	Professor Michael Veltman and Dr Irina Hollington
1.30–2.50pm	Session 3: Interventional pain medicine, evidence, innovation and patient selection	Chair: Dr Guy Buchanan
1.30pm	Pulsed radiofrequency: Mechanisms and optimisation techniques	Associate Professor Marc Russo
2pm	Neuromodulation now and next: Evidence, evolving indications, and access	Dr Richard Sullivan
2.30pm	Panel discussion: Matching the right intervention to the right patient	All speakers
2.50–3.20pm	Afternoon tea
3.20–5pm	Session 4: Research, translation and the future of pain care	Chair: Dr Noam Winter
3.20pm	ViaDisc: Emerging biologic treatment for discogenic low back pain	Dr Harrison Mihailidis
3.50pm	Optogenetics and the future of pain science: What might be possible?	Dr Mary Ardren
4.20pm	Perioperative opioid stewardship: Stakeholder perspectives on changing practice	Dr Megan Allen
4.50pm	Closing remarks	Dr Harry Sivakumar
5pm	Meeting concludes	