

POM: Partnering for better outcomes

27-29 November 2025
Tākina, Wellington Convention and
Exhibition Centre, New Zealand

#PeriSIG25

THURSDAY 27 NOVEMBER 2025

Time	Session
8-10am	Workshop 1: Perioperative medicine course supervisor training (Must be a Graduate of Chapter of Perioperative Medicine (GChPOM))	Facilitator: Associate Professor Joel Symons
10-10.30am	Morning tea for workshop delegates
10.30am-12.30pm	Workshop 2: Perioperative medicine course supervisor training (Must be a Graduate of Chapter of Perioperative Medicine (GChPOM))	Facilitator: Associate Professor Joel Symons
12-1pm	Lunch
1-1.15pm	Welcome	Dr Nicola Broadbent – Perioperative Medicine SIG chair
1.15-2.45pm	Plenary 1: Aiming for the stars	Chair: Dr Nicola Broadbent
	The journey from Byron Bay to London	Dr Sean McManus
	The goals of modern perioperative medicine	Professor Ramani Moonesinghe
	Ko ngā pae tawhiti whāia kia tata, ko ngā pae tata, whakamaua kia tina: The potential for tomorrow depends on what we do today.	Dawson Ward
	Q&A panel discussion
2.45-3.15pm	Afternoon tea
3.15-4.45pm	Plenary 2: The patient experience
	A patient's perspective of perioperative care	Dr Mohua Jain, with patient interview
	Surgery school	Dr Ianthe Boden
	The influence of effective pain management	Dr Karen Park
	Sip til Send	Dr Puneet Ranote
	Q&A panel discussion
4.45-6.15pm	Welcome reception

POM: Partnering for better outcomes

FRIDAY 28 NOVEMBER 2025

Morning of three sessions of breakouts – three breakouts per stream

8am–12pm	Coaching workshop – coaching skills to partner for better outcomes (limited spots)	Dr Sancha Robinson
8.15–9.15am	BREAKOUT SESSIONS [1]
8.15–9.15am	Poster session	Dr Nicola Broadbent and Dr Ianthe Boden
8.15–9.15am	Opioid stewardship and complex pain patients in the perioperative setting	Dr Karen Park
8.15–9.15am	Designing and establishing perioperative services – the local Wellington experience	Wellington group – Dr Katie Thorne, Dr Nick Rogers, Dr Paul Dalley, Dr Aruntha Moorthy and Dr Chris Moller
9.15–9.30am	Lecture changeover time
9.30–10.30am	BREAKOUT SESSIONS [2]
9.30–10.30am	Obstetric medicine and considerations for non-obstetric surgery in pregnancy	Dr Nicola Broadbent
9.30–10.30am	Beyond the ECG: modern cardiac imaging	Professor Alexander Sasse
9.30–10.30am	The clinician's toolkit: Essentials for the perioperative frontline (tools, scales, etc.)	Dr Christina Norris
10.30–11am	Morning tea
11am–12pm	BREAKOUT SESSIONS [3]
11am–12pm	Perioperative bleeding vs thrombosis: navigating a path	Dr Laura Young (online) and Dr Kerry Gunn
11am–12pm	Obesity management: new evidence, ongoing uncertainties	Associate Professor Cilla Haywood
12–1pm	Lunch
1–2.30 pm	Plenary 3: Patient and Whanau (family) as partners
	Shared decision-making and goals of care	Dr Cath Sayer
	Fit for Surgery	Dr Marco Meijer
	Co-designing with patients and communities	Dr Rajni Lal
	Q&A panel discussion
2.30–3pm	Afternoon tea
3–4.30pm	Plenary 4: Complications and outcomes
	Patient-centred outcomes	Dr Aislinn Brown
	Failure to rescue	Dr Cameron Wells
	Perioperative mortality review in New Zealand	Dr Kerry Gunn and Dr Richard Hamblin
	Patient deterioration pathways	Dr Alex Psirides (online)
	Q&A panel discussion
4.30 – 5.30pm	Chapter of Perioperative Medicine ceremony

SATURDAY 29 NOVEMBER 2025

6.30–7.30am	Wellington run
8.30–10am	Plenary 5: Partnering for the best outcomes	Chair: Dr Ianthe Boden
	Older People Under Surgeons (OPUS) program	Dr John Geddes
	Perioperative trauma systems – embedding quality, safety and change at scale	Dr James Moore
	Simple measures to reduce pulmonary complications – a physiotherapy led project	Tanuja Thomas and Sarah Fitzgerald
	General physicians – an integral part of the perioperative medicine sphere	Dr Amy Osborne
	Q&A panel discussion
10–10.30am	Morning tea
10.30am–12pm	Plenary 6: Returning to the community
	Bridging Perioperative Medicine and Primary Care: Why collaboration Matters	Dr Brendan Marshall
	Utilising hospital in the home for surgical recovery	Dr Seok Lim and team
	When will I be back to normal?	Dr Telen Kerkham
	Q&A panel discussion
12–1pm	Lunch
1–2.30pm	Plenary 7: POM update: Education, evidence, QI
	Data-driven quality improvement – ANZHFR	Professor Jacqui Close (online)
	Data-driven quality improvement – NSQUIP and perioperative dashboards	Professor Arthur Richardson
	Education update from the Chapter of Perioperative Medicine	Associate Professor Joel Symons
	Q&A panel discussion
2.30–3pm	Afternoon tea
3–4.30pm	Plenary 8: Reflections	Chair: Dr Nicola Broadbent
	Humanism in surgery – bread and roses	Associate Professor Kok Yang Tan
	Delivering perioperative medicine into rural and remote communities	Dr Claire Arundell
	Health equity and national perioperative outcomes – closing the socioeconomic gap	Professor Ramani Moonesinghe
	Q&A panel discussion
4.30pm	Closing	