BREAKING BARRIERS

30 April – 2 May

Cedar Creek Lodges, Mt Tamborine, QLD

#ELC24BRIS

Are you an emerging leader in anaesthesia or pain medicine?
Do you want to meet and learn from likeminded emerging leaders?
Do you want to enhance your leadership within your workplace?
Are you within five years* of fellowship?

Then apply now for the 2024 ELC!

Applications are invited from fellows in all training regions to apply to attend the college's premiere early career leadership event. The 2024 Emerging Leaders Conference (ELC) will be held at Cedar Creek Lodges, Mt Tamborine. To be eligible, fellows must be within five years* of fellowship on Friday 20 October 2023 and attend a minimum of two days of the the 2024 ANZCA Annual Scientific Meeting (ASM) in Brisbane. Selection will be undertaken by the Regional and National committees, the Faculty of Pain Medicine and the Indigenous Health Committee.

The 2024 ELC is a chance to learn from the experience of others breaking their own boundaries. It is an opportunity to work together to lead our profession into a limitless future.

The college and faculty are investing in their future leaders by covering the costs of this conference. The applicant is responsible for the cost of travel to and from the ELC, and the ASM registration fee and associated costs. We welcome and encourage parents with newborns and their support person. Unfortunately, family members including small children, are not otherwise permitted to attend due to the immersive nature of the conference.

How to apply:

Applications are now open! If you wish to apply, please submit a selection criteria application form (found on the 2024 ELC webpage), accompanied by your curriculum vitae, to Majella Coco by Friday 20 October 2023. Applicants will be notified in early December if they have been successful.
*Taking into account career disruption.

*The college understands career disruption may be for a variety of reasons, such as parental leave, illness, or time taken to care for a dependent. In support of our member's ongoing learning, education and participation in this conference, time taken for any of these reasons is not included in the five year * requirement.*
