

Providing equitable care to all our communities

TIME	TOPIC	PRESENTERS
9am	Welcome to the symposium	Dr Chris Cokis - ANZCA President
9.10am	Welcome to Country	Representative from the Gadigal people
9.30-11.15am	Session 1: Providing equitable care to all our communities Key characteristics and social determinants Access to specialist care to meet the needs of the community	Chair: Dr Chris Cokis
9.30-10am	Global overview: The importance of socially accountable medical education and training	Professor Roger Strasser
10-10.20am	Perspective from Canada	A/Prof Lisa Richardson
10.20-10.40am	Perspective from Aotearoa New Zealand	Dr Kiri Prentice
10.40-11am	Perspective from Australia	Professor Phillip Mills (virtual)
11-11.15am	Question and answers
11.15-11.45am	Morning Tea
11.45am-12.50pm	Session 2: Education and training to support access to care	Chair: Dr Kerin Fielding
11.45am-12.10pm	University selection and undergraduate education to promote and support rural practice	Professor Martin Veysey
12.10-12.35pm	Building a workforce for underserved populations in Australia: Applying a global checklist	Adj Assoc Professor Belinda O'Sullivan
12.35-12.50pm	Question and answers
12.50-1.45pm	Lunch
1.45-2.55pm	Session 3: Meeting the challenges of practice for rural and underserved populations	Chair: Dr Glen Bandiera
1.45-2.10pm	Meeting the challenges for rural and underserved populations	A/Prof Matt Coleman
2.10-2.35pm	Support for rural practice and lifestyle - Networks - Retention	Dr Bridget Clancy
2.35-2.55pm	Question and answers

Providing equitable care to all our communities

2.55-3.25pm	Afternoon Tea
3.25-4.10pm	Session 4: Innovation to support the provision of equitable care to all our communities	Chair: Dr Leona Wilson
3.25-3.45pm	Multifaceted application of telehealth and other new technologies in a statewide rural clinical network: Lessons learned over 2 decades	Dr Philip Tideman
3.45-4pm	Innovations in digital health	Ian Davies, Australian Digital Health Agency
4-4.10pm	Question and answers
4.10-5pm	Session 5: Debate: All trainees should spend time in a rural or remote setting during their specialty training	Dr Kerin Fielding, Dr Eliza Patterson, Dr Martin Veysey and Dr Kristof Wing
5pm	Closing address	