

Combined Communication, Education, Wellbeing,
Leadership and Management SIG meeting

“Failing to succeed”

1-3 October 2021
Riley Crystalbrook, Cairns

Program

Friday 1 October 2021

Time	Session
8.30-10.30am	Workshop 1 Mental Health First Aid
9-10.30am	Workshop 2 Acute severe behaviour disturbance
10:30-11am	Morning Tea
11am-1pm	Workshop 1 continued Mental Health First Aid
11am-12.30pm	Workshop 3 Acute severe behaviour disturbance
12:30-1.30pm	Lunch
1:30-2pm	Welcome to country Welcome from the convenors Dr Suyin Tan and Professor Kirsty Forrest
2-3pm	OPENING PLENARY SESSION 1: COMMUNICATION IN ANAESTHESIA SIG Failing to succeed Chair: Dr Suyin Tan Succeeding to fail – Dr Chris Wilde Planning for imperfection; accounting for context and complexity in culture change – Associate Professor Rhea Liang
3-3.30pm	Afternoon Tea
3:30-5pm	PLENARY SESSION 2: LEADERSHIP & MANAGEMENT SIG Leadership Lessons Learned Chair: Dr Scott Ma Defending the AARK and other regional battles – Dr James Sartain Resilience; easy to say, harder to do – Dr Sean McManus Failing to succeed in Indigenous health: an anaesthetic story of hope – Dr Dasha Newington (via video link)
5-6.30pm	Welcome Reception – Riley Crystalbrook

Program

Saturday 2 October 2021

Time	Session
7-8am	Yoga
9-10.30am	PLENARY SESSION 3 Failure and shame Chair: Professor Kirsty Forrest Finding growth and opportunity in the face of failure – Professor Lara Varpio and Associate Professor Meredith Young (via video link) Shame in medical education – Associate Professor Will Bynum, MD (via video link) Q&A session (via videolink)
10:30-11am	Morning Tea
11am-12.30pm	Professional Practice Research Network (PPRN) session Dr Kara Allen Workshop 4 Developing an anaesthetic peer support program Facilitator: Dr Gemma Slykerman
12:30-1.30pm	Lunch
1.30-3pm	Workshop 5: Developing a communication learning package for ANZCA trainees Facilitators: Maurice Hennessy and Dr Suyin Tan Workshop 6: Luck is downstream from preparation: Helping candidates prepare for the primary examination Facilitators: Dr Julia Coldrey – Chair and Dr Emma Giles – Immediate Past chair, Primary Exam Subcommittee Workshop 7: Hypnotic communication skills for anaesthetists: Using failure to succeed! Facilitator: Dr Allan Cyna
3-3.30pm	Afternoon tea
3:30-5pm	PLENARY SESSION 4: COMMUNICATION IN ANAESTHESIA SIG Failure is not a dirty word Chair: Dr Suyin Tan Consent – Dr Allan Cyna When words fail us: Nocebo effects of language – Dr Andrew Watson Critical incident de-briefing project launch – Dr Richard Seglenieks (via video link), Dr Myat Aung and Ms Liz Crowe
6.30-10pm	Dinner – Salt House Restaurant

Program

Sunday 3 October 2021

Time	Session
7-8am	Yoga
9-10.30am	PLENARY SESSION 5: WELLBEING SIG Distress amongst anaesthetists: Quantifying the problem and organisational strategies for prevention Chair: Dr Anna Hallett Suicide Survey update – Dr Maryann Turner ANZCA Doctors’ Support Program: What can you get out of it? – Converge International (via video link) The Mayo Index Tool. Use of an internationally validated tool to assess and maintain clinician wellbeing from an individual and organisational perspective – Fiona Fitzgerald (Health Round table)
10:30-11am	Morning Tea
11am-12.30pm	CLOSING PLENARY SESSION 6 Should gender be considered in our education practices? Chair: Dr Kara Allen Gender effects in anaesthesia training in Australia and New Zealand – Dr Nav Sidhu & Dr Greta Pearce (via video link) Why do women leave training? – Associate Professor Rhea Liang Gender and leadership – Professor Jenny Weller Launch of the “ANZCA Unconscious bias and interview panels toolkit” – Dr Louisa Lowes and Dr Adele MacMillan
12:30pm	Closing and Lunch

