

ANZCA and FPM CPD Program

Peer review of practice (pain medicine) – observation form

Date: _____ Nature of the clinic: _____

Number of cases observed: _____

Category of Practice ( FPM role in practice )	Observations	Outcome of discussion
Patient management (Clinician)
Holistic assessment of patient
Interpretation of assessment
Diagnostic reasoning and formulation of management plan
Referral for further investigations if required
Therapeutic options provided
Ethical care of the patient
Appropriate follow up arranged
Communication (Communicator)
Rapport with patient
Communication skills with patient, i.e. active listening, empathy, acknowledgement of experience of pain

Relationship with patients and their families/whanau/carers
Negotiating patient concerns, values and wishes
Provision of information, including risks/benefits of treatment options
Communication with other members of the multidisciplinary team
Communication with referring doctor and GP
Teamwork/collaboration (Collaborator)
Plan of care developed with others
Communication of patient's management plan to all team members
Negotiation with other staff to optimise patient care, as required
Cooperation with team and requesting assistance from others
Clear delegation of tasks
Responsiveness to questions or suggestions
Management (Leader and Manager, Health Advocate, Professional)
Keeps to scheduled appointment times
Awareness of cost /utility implications

Adherence to agreed standards and guidelines, including FPM professional documents
Risk minimisation (practices to reduce patient harm)		