

Regulation 7 Annual subscription

7. Annual subscription

7.1 Subscriptions

- 7.1.1 Pursuant to articles 2, 3 and 4 of the constitution, fellows of the college are required to pay an annual subscription which will be due on the 1st day of January in each year. Subscriptions payable by fellows appointed during the year will be pro-rated based on the number of calendar month in the year from the date of admissions.
- 7.1.2 The provisions of regulation 7 do not apply to the Faculty of Pain Medicine.

7.2 Definitions:

- 7.2.1 Active fellows are those in independent specialist anaesthesia or pain medicine practice, which includes provision of specialist anaesthesia or pain medicine services, specialist consulting, medico-legal practice and clinical support activities (such as administration, teaching and research).
- 7.2.2 Fully retired fellows are those who have ceased practising all forms of clinical medicine, medico-legal work and clinical support activities (such as administration, teaching and research).
- 7.2.3 Practice is any role whether remunerated or not, in which the fellow uses their skills and knowledge as a health practitioner in their profession. For the purposes of the college's standards, practice is not restricted to the provision of direct clinical care. It also includes using professional knowledge in a direct non-clinical relationship with clients, working in management, administration, education, research, advisory, regulatory or policy development roles, and any other roles that impact on safe, effective delivery of services in the profession.
- 7.2.4 Two clinical sessions are deemed to equate to 0.2 FTE.

7.3 Concessions:

- 7.3.1 Pursuant to article 3 of the constitution, council may determine rates of concessions applicable to annual subscriptions payable by fellows within the same class of membership if there is a good and compelling reason to do so.
- 7.3.2 Conditions under which concession of the annual subscription may be granted are as detailed in regulation 7.4 and set out on the annual subscription notice.
- 7.3.3 Concessions are granted under one category only, as applicable, and are not cumulative.
- 7.3.4 Concessions as detailed in regulation 7.4 are applied prospectively on an annual basis.
- 7.3.5 Fellows wishing to apply for concessions should forward complete details in writing to the ANZCA

- 7.6 Non-payment of the annual subscription for six (6) months after it becomes due, as specified on the relevant subscription notice, results in the person ceasing to be a member of the college with consequent loss of all rights and privileges of membership. ANZCA Council may announce to the public generally or to any professional body or organisation, the fact that a person has ceased to be a member of the college and therefore loses the right to use the post-nominal of FANZCA. ANZCA may require a person to return his or her certificate of fellowship to the college.
